Ms. Janie Cockrell
Director
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
P. O. Box 99
Huntsville, TX 77342

I am writing to request your assistance in a serious matter. I have exhausted all administrative remedies on my unit in an effort to obtain protective custody.

I currently am housed in Administrative Segregation as a result of an attack in which I was forced to defend myself when on duty officers did not respond to my pleas for help. This is not the first time I've been attacked or threatened. I've reported threats and filed life endangerment forms, all of which have been met with apathy. I feel this apathy and negligence is also prejudice resulting from the negative attention media produced.

My case attracted National Media attention resulting in the publication of the books Blind Love by Peter Meyer and The Cadet Murder Case by A. W. Gray. It also spawned the movie "Love's Deadly Triangle: The Texas Cadet Murder" which airs on both NBC and the Lifetime channel at a frequency of about once every 3 months. The case was twice on the cover of People Magazine in October of '96 and again in March of '98. It was also on the cover of Texas Monthly in '96 and featured in various other magazines including Glamour magazine. My trial was aired on Court TV. from beginning to end nationwide. Interviews and talk shows covered the case some of which were CNN's Larry King Live, Geraldo Rivera, The Leeza Show, Dateline and the Today Show. Prime Time Live featured the case several times as well. Because of all the media attention, I was placed in permanent protective custody in the Tarrant County Jail to avoid problems. I was repeatedly threatened.

~~The Texas Department of Criminal Justice has not only repeatedly denied me protection but it has allowed the movie to air and be viewed in the dorms I've lived in, denying my requests (and my family's) that it be blocked on my unit.~~ This has caused theft of my property, threats on my life and attacks on my body.

I am in fear of what will occur when I am once again released to general population. I am due for review this October and will likely be released to general population as a result of good behavior. ~~My safety is in jeopardy and I fear for my life once I am sent up to the unit.~~ I am safe and have done well in a cell alone in Administrative Segregation. It is my wish to remain protected.

My unit refuses to see the danger and transfer my custody status from "Security Detention" to ~~"Protective Custody"~~. I plead for your help in this urgent matter. Please, if you can be of any assistance, I would greatly appreciate it.

Respectfully,

Diane Michelle Zamora #814993

FROM:	TDCJ-ID Offender Correspondence Office	SUBJECT:	Life Endangerment Issues

Your letter to Ms. Janie Cockrell was forwarded by that office to the TDCJ-ID Offender Correspondence Office for review and response. We have submitted your letter to the unit warden for consideration, due to the references you made to a possible life endangerment situation.

It is in your best interest to contact the Warden, the Major, the Chief of Classification, or any security staff member on your unit regarding life endangerment claims. This endeavor will guarantee a more timely response to your claims. We rely on the unit administration's professional assessment of your situation and trust they will take appropriate action to ensure your safety.

THE TRIAL OF DIANE ZAMORA

Zamora trial

The Diane Zamora capital murder trial is scheduled to begin on Monday and is expected to last three to four weeks. The trial will be at the Tarrant County Criminal Courts Building, Criminal District Court No. 4. Judge Joe Drago presiding.

THE TRIAL PROCESS

1. Opening statements — Attorneys are given a period of time to tell jurors what they believe their evidence will show. The prosecution goes first. Defense attorneys may make their statements at the beginning of the trial or when they present their case to the jury.

2. Evidence — Prosecutors present their evidence and then "rest" their case. Then defense attorneys do the same. Prosecutors may then call rebuttal witnesses to dispute testimony given by defense witnesses. The defense may then call their own rebuttal witnesses. The process continues until neither side has any additional rebuttal witnesses. The state then closes its case, as does the defense.

3. Closing arguments — Attorneys are given a period of time to try to convince the jury what the evidence in the case showed. This is considered by many to be a critical part in the trial. A compelling closing argument often can sway jurors, many legal experts say. The prosecution goes first, followed by the defense. After that, the prosecution has the opportunity to rebut the defense arguments.

4. Jury deliberations — If the jury convicts in a capital murder case, it can assess the death penalty. If prosecutors waive the death penalty, which they have in this case, the defendant receives an automatic punishment of life in prison.

In capital murder cases, jurors may also consider a lesser charge during deliberations. If jurors convict the defendant of murder, the trial proceeds to the sentencing phase. Punishment for murder ranges from probation to 99 years in prison.

5. Sentencing phase — Prosecutors try to show that the defendant is dangerous, and the defense will present positive information about the defendant or evidence, if there is any, of a dysfunctional upbringing or other mitigating circumstances.

OTHER COMMONLY USED TERMS:

Objections — Throughout the trial, attorneys will object to a variety of things, including a question being asked by an attorney, an attempt to present evidence, or a request to call a particular witness to testify. If the judge sustains the objection, it means the question, or evidence or witness cannot be presented. If the judge overrules the objection, it means the material can be presented.

Contempt of court — Contempt of court citations are rare, but a judge can issue one if an attorney blatantly disregards a court order or ruling. The citations carry up to a $500 fine.

RE: Diane Zamora #814993

Dear Ombudsman,

I am writing concerning the apparent attempt of TDCJ to reclassify Diane Zamora #814993 and move her from protective custody to the general population at the Mountain View Unit.

I have served as Diane's Spiritual Advisor for the past fifteen years, and I have consistently visited her on a monthly basis during that time. It is my strong opinion that this move would put her well being in great jeopardy, and I request that this move not be made for that reason.

Due to the high profile of her case, and the movies and documentaries that have not only been made, but continue to air consistently on television, this move would place her in serious physical and emotional danger. Each time one of these programs air, she receives numerous letters from individuals who "look her up" on the Internet. While some of these letters are love letters from men who think they are in love with her, others are just the opposite. I can only imagine the kinds of letters other offenders receive from family members who have friends and loved ones interred at the Mountain View Unit and learn that she is incarcerated there. A search on the Internet also brings up numerous articles, chat rooms, and over venues that host negative opinions and comments on Diane.

I have served in full-time pastoral ministry for over thirty years, and have also served as a volunteer police chaplain for two local police departments for the past seven years. As a result, I can only imagine the difficulties encountered by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice in the task at hand. However, I request in doing your duties to the citizens of Texas, that Diane's safety not be placed in jeopardy at the same time. Thank you for reading my letter and your consideration in this matter.

Dear Mr. Hoxworth:

This is in response to your correspondence received on December 28, 2015, by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) Ombudsman Office alleging Offender Zamora's safety will be in jeopardy if she is placed in general population (GP) and you are requesting she remain in protective custody.

Records do not indicate Offender Zamora has been placed in GP, she remains in protective/safekeeping custody. At this time, Offender Zamora is appropriately housed and assigned to her custody level within her current status.

No further action is required at this time. Thank you for contacting our office with your concerns.

Sincerely,

State Classification and Records is in receipt of your correspondence regarding your concern of the removal of protective safekeeping of Offender Zamora, Diane TDCJ# 814993.

Careful consideration is taken for placement and removal of any restrictive custody on offenders. Offenders in protective safekeeping are interviewed by a committee biannually to ascertain if they are having problems or if they have received  direct or indirect threats either by persons  TDCJ or outside TDCJ. The State Classification Committee member also review the offender file to include current and/or prior offender protection investigations prior to the removal of protective safekeeping.

Review of offender records indicate Offender Zamora is appropriately assigned.

Hello Diane,

Thank you so much for taking the time to read this letter!

My colleague dropped you a line last year, and I wanted to follow up as we are progressing with a new series. Having read around your case myself, I would very much like to organise an interview with you and Piers Morgan for our UK TV series. I'm a television producer who works for a company called Plum Pictures. We're based in London, England and make television shows for English and US TV channels.

We've filmed in many prisons before – both men's and women's - and also on Death Row. However, I can't even begin to imagine what you have been through with the difficulties of your case, and the years you've already served.

This documentary series is presented by Piers Morgan. You might already know him, but if not, he's interviewed some of the most famous people from the worlds of entertainment and politics – Bill Clinton, Oprah Winfrey, Madonna, Princess Diana and the Dalai Lama – to name a few! He took over Larry King's show on CNN and was a judge on America's Got Talent. Before all this, he was a journalist and editor in England, running some of the biggest newspapers in the country.

Piers is well known for being fair, and a straight talker. He treats everyone with respect and will give you his honest opinion.

We will be airing the series on a TV channel in England called ITV – with shows like X Factor and Britain's Got Talent; it is the biggest channel in the country. Each episode in the series will focus on one woman's story. The aim is to hear each woman tell their story in their own words, to understand what it is like being in prison and how they got to be there.

This is a unique opportunity to share your experience, to say what you want and what you feel is important to capture from your personal story. The plan is to film later this year, but the timing might still change. I would be keen to pick up with you about the series and welcome any questions you might have about taking part.

Many thanks for your time, I really appreciate you reading this letter and hopefully look forward to hearing from you in the coming weeks.

Hello Diane

Thank you so much for taking the time to read this letter!

I'm a television producer who works for a company called Plum Pictures. We're based in London, England and make television shows for English and US TV channels. I read about your case and would very much like to interview you for a TV documentary series that we're working on. I've filmed in many prisons before – both men's and women's - and also on Death Row, but can't even begin to imagine what you've already gone through the years you've already served.

The presenter of the programmes is called Piers Morgan. You might already know him, but if not he's interviewed some of the most famous people from the world of entertainment and politics – Bill Clinton, Oprah Winfrey, Madonna, Princess Diana and the Dalai Lama – to name a few! He took over Larry King's show on CNN and was a judge on America's Got Talent. Before this he was a journalist and editor in England for over 20 years running some of the biggest news papers in the country. He's married and now lives in London with his three children. Piers is known for being a straight talker and fair – he'll give you his honest opinion and always treats the interviewee with respect. I told him about your story and he's looking forward to hopefully speaking to you.

The documentary series will be two episodes and shown on a TV channel called ITV – the biggest channel in England with shows like X Factor and Britain's Got Talent. In the series we are looking to speak to a small number of women and have them tell their story of what it's like being in prison and what got them there. It would be Piers interviewing you and we film documentary style so it would give you a unique opportunity to tell your story, say what you want and what you think is important to capture from your personal story. The plan is to film in November 2015 and January 2016, but the timing might still change.

I look forward to hopefully hearing from you and again I really appreciate you taking the time to read this letter! To contact me back you can write to me at:

Dear Ms. Zamora,

I hope this letter finds you well.

Indigo Films produces award-winning programming for networks like Discovery, History Channel, Travel Channel, National Geographic Channel, and TruTV. We are now in production on a new television series for Investigation Discovery tentatively titled "We Did It for Love." The series is about couples whose relationship or desire to be together is a driving force behind the crime.

The series will explore the dynamics of the relationship and the events that led up to the crime that you are incarcerated for. Oftentimes the details that are reported in the news are incorrect or don't tell the entire story. This is an opportunity for you to talk about what happened from your perspective, in your words. Our goal is to give you a voice to share your story.

If you are interested in participating, we will ultimately try to set up an on-camera interview and feature you in one of the hour-long episodes of the show.

If this show sounds like something you might be interested in doing, please write me as soon as possible to let me know. There are still many steps to go through before an on-camera interview can happen, but a necessary first step is getting in touch with you and finding out if you are interested in participating.

If you are not interested, we'd like to know that as well so we do not send any follow up mail.

In your letter, please provide me with some information about your relationship with David Graham and the crime that occurred. Also, feel free to send any questions or concerns that you may have so I can try to address them.

Sincerely,

Dear Diane,

I hope this letter finds you well in spite of circumstances. My name is Karen Schiffman and I am a producer with Eastern, a New York based production company.

We're currently working on a new docu-series where individuals share personal perspectives about a closed case. In my research efforts to find stories I feel are more than what they appear on first glance, I've been reading quite a bit about you and your life. I was very moved by your story, and your personal journey. So, I wanted to reach out, and see if you would consider sharing your story, in your words, with us in an episode of our new series for Oxygen.

I appreciate and understand the limits on your end, but I have been told by the supervisors in Huntsville we can make this work if you are on board and interested. All we really need at this time is your willingness to participate. On our end, we're still finalizing details and dates for when this would air. Please take some time to consider our offer, and let me know if you have any questions.

You can respond to me in writing at:

Karen Schiffman
220 3rd Floor 12th Ave
New York City, NY 10001

Or alternatively, if you have phone privileges, you can call 646.216.8792 and reverse the charges to me- I will accept them.

Again, please let me know if you have any questions, and I'm happy to answer them. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

All the best,
Karen

Hi Ms. Zamora,

My name is Jessica and I am a producer of a new documentary series for Investigation Discovery Channel called "People Magazine Investigates". Each one-hour episode delves into a story written by one of People Magazine's investigative journalists. Our series tries to highlight the human interest side of hard-hitting news with interviews of those involved.

We're currently working on an episode about your case and we would love to interview you for our story. We have read quite a bit of material about this case, but I don't think we've really seen your side of the story in your own words. This would be a good opportunity for you to share your thoughts and feelings as well as clear up any misconceptions you think that people may have about you or the case.

I realize that you may have had negative experiences with interviews in the past, but I wanted to see if more information about our show would be helpful to your decision. As a People Magazine brand, we're not looking for "gotcha" journalism, just straight forward questions that would be on your terms. Lauren, the producer who would be conducting the interview, in addition to producing and writing hundreds of hours of TV has also produced award-winning documentaries. Her interviews are always respectful.

Thank you in advance for your time,

All the best,

Jessica

I am writing because I was informed of the possibility that I was being considered for release to general population this month. It is my request that I not be released to general population because of the many problems I had when I WAS in population and because I feel TDCJ would be placing my safety in jeopardy by releasing me from protective custody. I fear for my life if I am ever sent up to the unit.

Before I was granted protection, the Texas Department of Criminal Justice had ignored reported threats and life endangerment forms filed. I was attacked on more than one occasion and TDCJ guards refused to respond to my pleas for help. I was housed in Administrative Segregation after I was forced to defend myself against an attacker. This negligence of my safety was a result of prejudice from negative media attention.

My case attracted national media attention resulting in the publication of the books Blind Love by Peter Meyer and The Cadet Murder Case by A.W. Gray. It also spawned the movie "Love's Deadly Triangle: The Texas Cadet Murder" which airs on both NBC and the Lifetime channel at a frequency of about once every 3 months. The case was twice on the cover of People Magazine and made the covers of other magazines such as Texas Monthly and US Weekly. It was featured in Glamour magazine and the tabloids The Globe, The National Enquirer and Star. My trial was aired nationwide with gavel to gavel coverage on Court TV. My case was featured on every major network news channel as well as programs such as CNN's Larry King Live, Geraldo Rivera, The Leeza Show, Dateline and the Today Show. It was covered several times on Prime Time Live and The Montel Williams Show. I was placed in permanent protective custody in the Tarrant County jail to avoid problems because of the excessive media attention.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice not only repeatedly denied me protection but allowed the movie to air and be viewed in dorms I lived in, denying my requests (and my family's) that it be blocked on my unit. This caused theft of my property, threats on my life and attacks on my body.

I filed a civil lawsuit against TDCJ and the unit warden that was dismissed for failure to file my grievance specifically on the issue of protection. After filing my grievances and exhausting administrative remedies, I prepared to file the lawsuit a second time. It was in the midst of this second filing that Huntsville agreed to grant me protection and I was transferred to protective custody.

Although I have been in protective custody for a while, I still experience harassment of various degrees. The Unit Administration still has a habit of turning a deaf ear to my complaints more often than not. At least, I no longer have to worry that this apathy will result in a physical attack as I worried when I was in population. I have no desire to risk my safety by going to population. Should I be released to population and assaulted once more, TDCJ would be legally liable for jeopardizing my safety. I pray you will vote to remain me in protective custody.

Judge in Zamora murder case dies

Former state District Judge Joe Drago III, 70, who presided over the high-profile murder trial of Naval Academy Midshipman Diane Zamora, died Friday. He advocated telecasting trials even though he said the Zamora case took a personal toll. Darren Barbee, 1B

Former state District Judge Joe Drago III, whose high-profile cases included the love-triangle murder trial of Naval Academy Midshipman Diane Zamora, died Friday at his home in Fort Worth. He was 70 and had battled throat and lung cancer for a decade, his wife said.

Fellow retired Judge Don Leonard said Judge Drago was such good company that he could "sit down with a bunch of can-bals and just bond."

And he was always there for his family. He balanced the ugliness he saw from the bench with a warm and protective love for his family, relatives said.

"A lot of people get to the top of their profession, which is what I consider Dad did as a judge," said son Jon Drago, tournament director for the Byron Nelson Championship. "A lot of people that get there abandon their family to do so or aren't able to have a relationship with their family."

His father took time for his family "almost in spite of" the success, he said.

Tarrant County District Attorney Joe Shannon met Judge Drago in the 1960s when the jurist was a city prosecutor in Fort Worth. He recalled a fair man who took his job seriously but was relaxed enough to wear a golf shirt under his robes from time to time with a tie that was cut off at the neck. The judge was known for noontime naps and his old Volkswagen Fox.

"He was... the kind of a person that you would hope every judge would seek to emulate," Shannon said.

In 2002, the year he retired, Judge Drago won the Silver Gavel Award from the Tarrant County Bar Association.

Yet it was almost not to be, said his wife, Diane.

Joe Drago was one of four children, all of whom worked at their father's hardware store in Fort Worth. He was headed to medical school when he suddenly switched to law at because of a physics course, his wife said.

State District Judge Joe Drago listens to testimony in the murder trial of Naval Academy Midshipman Diane Zamora in 1998. Star-Telegram Archives

"He just decided," she said.

Judge Drago came to Fort Worth in the mid-1960s after graduating from the University of Texas at Austin. He worked as a city prosecutor and judge in Fort Worth before joining the district attorney's office. There, he headed the county's misdemeanor unit before prosecuting many felony trials for the county, Shannon said.

"Then he got on the bench and did a great job," he said.

Judge Drago was appointed a judge by Democratic Gov. Mark White in 1985 and won elections in 1986, 1990, 1994 and 1998, his wife said. In 1989, he switched to the Republican Party.

Judge Drago called the county's first night court into session in 1987.

In 1990, he presided over the trial of Ricky Lee Green, who was convicted of the sex-torture slaying of a KXAS Channel 5 executive.

In 1998, he tried Zamorara, whose case was nationally televised after being the subject of a made-for-TV movie.

Judge Drago was so emotionally drained by the high-profile case that he asked Leonard to conduct the trial of Zamora's accomplice, Air Force Academy Cadet David Graham, in the killing of her teenage romantic rival, Adrienne Jones. Both Zamora and Graham received life sentences.

"It took me a long time to get over that trial — the stress and the media attention of everybody watching everything you did," Judge Drago said a year later.

Nevertheless, he wrote a 2002 op-ed article urging that trials be telecast "because court cases are the public's business. We should do all we can to let the public see the justice system at work."

For his family, it was the strong father and husband who will be missed, Judge Drago bought his children new cars and drove hand-me-downs himself. He was the kind of dad who waited up for his daughter, rarely if ever lost his temper and when his eldest son went on a date for the first time, followed his son's car to a dance to make sure he arrived safely.

Elder son Joseph Drago, a civil attorney, said little memories welled up in him Saturday as he recalled his father. He remembered playing baseball in high school and his father coming to every game.

One time he stood behind the backstop at home plate and his son heard him say, "Hit it to right field." "I hit the next pitch to right field for a triple," he said.

"He was probably one of the most honest people I know," Joseph Drago said. "Everything I learned I pretty much learned from him as far as how to act and conduct myself with honesty and integrity."

Jon Drago said his father was "just as comfortable at a dinner speaking to 500 people as he was at a backyard barbecue." He was the type of person "who could fit in, no matter what the environment was."

Tarrant County Judge Glen Whitley said it's another loss for the county after the shooting of an Arlington police officer and the recent death of former Tarrant County Judge Tom Vandegriff.

"It's been a tough year so far," Whitley said. He is also survived by his mother, Josie Drago, daughter Sarah Goggans and six grandchildren.

Dear Gloria;

After talking to you these past few days, I am in the mood to help Don fight this battle because there is so much hate Against her and Against me. This hate has no limit. About what happen at that hearing, the Warden has made this a personal thing and doesn't care for Don's safety. I am glad that the Governor is asking for Don's medical records because it could mean He is looking into her mental state and how not having protection could after that or He could evaluate that. Being where she is at is okay for now. It could go both ways. I need for you to tell Don that the day after Don left here, the Warden (Nelson) came here in a cheerful mood and told all these 4 inmates in front of ~~officer Turner~~ that Don would never ever return to PC and promised Patrona that that would never happen. Don can ask the Judge in the Motion for Re-hearing that Because of this New Evidence, He should reconsider His original order and Allow Don to return to PC. Tell Don she can call me as a witness as well as officer Turner because officer Turner told me and officer Morales too about what Warden Nelson said. Don can make the Argument to the Judge that Warden Nelson has a Personal Vendetta Against Don and has placed her in harm's danger. Don Also can put in her Motion that Patrona claimed in front of me and ~~officer Morales~~ that she was the Major's and Warden's informant and all of this of removing Don from PC was to please Patrona because Patrona and the Warden have a Personal Relationship which is Against Prison policy. Don can ask the Judge to call all of us as witnesses, since the Warden mentioned my name in that hearing, Don has a Right To fight Back

Case 6:15-cv-00465-RP Document 57-2 Filed 09/01/16 Page 43 of 79
This will show the Judge that the Warden is playing with Don's safety in order to please a few. Many attorneys who file motions for a Re-hearing have them denied. So Don should not get discouraged if the Judge denies her Motion. There are some Miracles that do happen and maybe one could happen with Don's Motion.

I am working to see if the attorneys helping me in my criminal case, maybe can help Don. But in the meantime, Don should continue with her Re-hearing Motion. I will keep you updated on what I find out about the attorneys.

Well, Take Care + God Bless you + your Family.

I leave you in God's hands
May His Love Reign in your heart

I love you

Diane Zamora TDC# 814993 versus the Hobby Unit Marlin Texas

Gloria Rincon <mkdivasunit@gmail.com>

to ombudsman

Attention Ombudsman of TCDJ, My name is Gloria Rincon. I am writing to request your assistance in a very serious matter. My daughter Diane Michelle Zamora TDC#814993 Has been in Protective custody for the last 18 years. The last classification review was done approximately in November and I was told in a letter that my daughter would remain in PC till the next review in 6 months. At that time she would be reevaluated once again to determine if she would be kept in PC or let up to population. This did not happen and Diane was moved on 2/23/16 from the Mountainview Unit to the Hobby Unit to general population. There is a letter in Diane's file from former Deputy Executive Director Janie Cockerel that states that Diane should never be released from Protective custody as long as she remained an inmate of TDCJ. There are real specific reasons why no one took Ms Cockrell's suggestion into consideration, and I can elaborate at a later time if needed. My main concern right now is that Diane's safety is being jeopardized. The officers from the Hobby unit are not taking her safety seriously and I want this unit to be investigated. The day after my daughter arrived she was attacked by an inmate. The inmate told her, so you are that "naval academy bitch". She kicked her and bruised her and cut her with something that I assume to be a blade according to the marks on her neck. The inmate threatened to find her and "kick her a-- again. When I went to visit her, she was stripped down and Diane said that the officer asked her why she had not reported the attack. Diane says that she told the officer that she did not report this for fear of being called a snitch and this was her first day on the unit. The officer told Diane that they were going to have to investigate. Their so called investigation concluded that Diane had hurt herself. I believe these officers did not want to get in trouble, and this conclusion would look better for the unit. If someone really had investigated they would have seen that there was no way that these injuries could have been caused by her. How could she cause bruises to the back of her legs or cuts behind her neck in such a manner that she was cut. Diane has filed two OPI's and nothing has been done to protect her.

There is an officer on that unit that went around telling inmates that they should be scared of Diane because of her case. There are numerous inmates that could testify to this. This officer was stirring trouble against my daughter. Diane was attacked again this past week by the same girl. I do not have a lot of details, because Diane was placed in transit and she was not able to call me. She called me today and gave me a few details, but again she was afraid to talk to much about what had happened. She said she did not want to worry me, but that she was fine. Diane had a valid reason to fear being released to population, but no one took it seriously. The TDCJ has not only repeatedly denied Diane's protection but it has allowed the made for TV movie about my daughter's case to be aired and viewed in the dorms that she lives in. This alone causes her problems with other inmates.

If this unit is really interested in protecting my daughter they would not have placed her with inmate chanda, who has a long list of attacks on inmates and officers. It is very obvious that they want my daughter hurt. I am pleading to you to please investigate this unit. I have never dealt with crooked officers like this unit employs. My daughter is not your typical inmate and she is very intelligent and I guess that is what makes these officers dislike her. Diane is a very likeable person and I think one of the reasons that she has been attacked is because these officers and inmates don't like that Diane has been in protective custody for all these years. Diane is good to the inmates that she comes in contact with and once they allow themselves to get to know her, they like her. I want this matter resolved. The Hobby Unit and TDCJ is depriving my daughter from the basic human need to be safe from harm. They are violating her Eight Amendment Constitutional Right against cruel and unusual punishment. I want a solution as quickly as possible. I pray that you can do as I have requested and investigate this unit. There is some unknown reason that my daughter is not being allowed to serve her time as other inmates do, but instead she lives in constant fear of her life. Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

Gloria Rincon

Diane's mother

I am over 21 years of age, of sound mind, capable of making this declaration, and personally acquainted with the facts herein stated.

I gave a statement on 2-21-16 for Diane Zamora's Offender Protection Investigation and wish to clarify such statement. At no time did I ever witness Diane Zamora hit herself or cause herself any harm. ~~This was an assumption I made~~ because I was under the impression that Zamora was trying to accuse Inmate Gwendolyn Greene of attacking her. Greene is well liked in G wing and many inmates felt very protective when officers led us to believe this to be the truth. Witness forms were passed out and there were ~~even inmates who wrote the statements of other inmates~~ so that there would be many witnesses to come to Greene's defense. I now realize that Zamora never accused Greene. I also have never witnessed Zamora solicit anyone in the dorm to harm her but I do know of instances where others DID attempt to solicit Zamora for this purpose and were turned down by her.

I am also witness to the fact that there is currently a book being passed around the dorm about Diane Zamora's case and that this has caused inmate hostility against her and lots of distress for Zamora.

My name is Tiffany Harper, TDCJ-ID #1441723, and I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the foregoing is true and correct. Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1748. Signed this 1st day of July, 2016.

I am over 21 years of age, of sound mind, and capable of making this declaration. I am personally acquainted with the facts herein stated.

I have lived with Diane Zamora since she first moved into G wing on February 18, 2016. I have never witnessed Zamora solicit anyone to harm her and know this to simply be a rumor that doesn't even conform with the character of Zamora. I have also never witnessed Zamora hit or cause herself harm. This is just another rumor that somehow began to stir up drama.

I am also witness that a book that covers Zamora's case is being passed around the dorm and have read the book myself. ~~the book is located in the dorm~~

~~written by the staff and is not to be read by anyone~~

~~who can be found~~ Many in the dorm are behaving ugly as a result of reading this book and I believe it to be a threat to Zamora's safety and security. No one else on the unit has their case sitting in a book on the library shelf.

I am over 21 years of age, of sound mind, capable of making this declaration, and personally acquainted with the facts herein stated.

I have lived with Diane Zamora since she first moved to the Hobby Unit and though it is true that she doesn't like this unit, she has never solicited anyone to harm her to try to leave it. I know that Zamora already will leave the unit for college in the coming semester so that was never the issue. The issue has always been her protection. I also have never witnessed her harming herself and that anyone would say this is odd since we can't see inside eachothers cells unless you go right up to the door. These are just assumptions and untrue.

I can testify that Zamora has been under lots of stress that has caused her to lose lots of weight and that it hasn't helped matters that a ~~book from the library that was being passed around the dorm~~ This book's existence on this unit has been causing problems because some people have been ugly towards Zamora about it. I would think that this would be cause for serious safety concerns.

I am writing to report the intentional harassment by Ms. Nelson (1st shift) against me. This situation with this particular officer has gotten to the point that it has created an unsafe environment for me within the prison. From the first day she was placed in the dorm with me (Feb. 20, 2016) she has done everything in her power to make my life difficult by going up to inmates in the dorm and asking them, "Aren't you afraid of her? Have you heard about her case?" I've overheard Ms. Nelson say this and have also had inmates in the dorm come up to me to tell me about how she attempted to instigate problems and turn them against me. Other officers have also witnessed her odd behavior. On March 9, 2016, the 3rd shift officers let me out to go to my 6am Law Library pass. I leaned against the door to go outside when Ms. Nelson arrived for 1st shift and scared me by beating on the door and screaming for me to get off the door. She entered and asked where I thought I was going. I told her that I had a 6am pass for the Law Library. She said, "Where you aren't going anywhere!" The 3rd shift officers on duty just looked at her strangely as she yelled, "Have they called out Law Library?" One of the ladies responded that they had just called it and Ms. Nelson snapped, "Well, you still aren't going anywhere until I search you." She hadn't even done a proper shift change yet but she was ready to harass me. I gave her my bed number before I left and she yelled, "I know where YOU live!" When I returned later and again, gave her my bed number to check in, she yelled at me again. Her co-worker asked how she knew where I lived and she barked, "She just sticks out!" On March 25, 2016, Ms. Nelson pulled me out for a cell search and ordered me to go to the dayroom. I did as I was told and had left my window open. She entered the cell and began to search. She yelled at me to come to the cell and began to scream at me, "You're not special! You don't get 2 johnnies! You're not going to be getting away with stuff here like you did on Mountain View!" She then ordered me back to the dayroom. Everyone got 2 cereals in their johnnie that morning because there wasn't a peanut butter sandwich in the sack. I only had what the officer handed me at breakfast, no more. She threw my T-shirt and other personal property in the hall as trash allowing other inmates to steal it. Later, she began screaming about a cat and called me to the door again. She yelled, "Did you think I wouldn't find it? Answer me!" I was so confused and all I could manage was, "I'm sorry." She screamed, "Sorry isn't going to cut it!" I don't know created such a scene that the whole dorm was gathered around watching. 2 girls began to curse at me and I left the bench to avoid drama. One got up to follow me and continue yelling while Ms. Nelson just smiled about it. I already don't go to rec. because I don't feel safe and suddenly, I was afraid to even be in the dayroom of my own dorm. All that yelling and screaming was uncalled for and unprofessional. Throwing away my personal property and trying to create an unsafe environment for me is obvious harassment and an Eighth Amendment violation against cruel and unusual punishment (Hudson v. Palmer, 468 U.S.517, 104S.Ct. 2452). This is one of the many reasons I was in protective custody, because of harassment resulting from my high profile case. ~~Ms. Nelson has made it her personal mission to cause me harm psychologically and with other inmates, jeopardizing my safety in every way she can manage.~~

Action Requested to resolve your Complaint.

I request that this harassment by Ms. Nelson be investigated and corrected.

Give reason for appeal (Be Specific). I am dissatisfied with the response at Step 1 because...

I am dissatisfied with the Step 1 response because Asst. Warden Markum did not conduct a proper investigation. He states that I am responsible for my actions which can result in disciplinary action. This is not an appeal of a case. This is intentional harassment by Ms. Nelson. No one in the dorm was questioned about her harassment & Warden Markum never had me questioned either. Inmate Snow Jimenez G110B, K. Henderson G112 & Inmate DeLeon all witnessed Ms. Nelson's harassment as well as how she intentionally brought up my criminal case to them, questioning if they'd seen the movie or read the books in a deliberate attempt to create an unsafe environment for me in the dorm. Warden Markum is condoning this behavior as well as her disposal of my personal property items outside of TDCJ policy guidelines which require a confiscation sheet. Warden Markum is showing deliberate indifference to my safety & to the security on the very unit he helps run. An investigation has not been conducted & needs to be because Ms. Nelson's behavior is extreme & being allowed to go unchecked.

FROM TDCJ'S GRIEVANCE OPERATIONS MANUAL

Staff Use of Slurs / Hostile Epithets Referrals

A referral regarding allegations of staff use of slurs or hostile epithets, PD-22 14b, is required according to guidelines set forth in PD-31 "Discrimination in the Workplace." A referral may be identified at any time during a Step 1 or Step 2 offender grievance investigation.

Any time an employee admits to using slurs or hostile epithets, or a witness states that they heard another employee use slurs or hostile epithets, the grievance and staff statements are referred to the Human Resources, Employee Relations Intake Department for TDCJ employees only.

Contract staff referrals are made as follows: Private Facility Contract Monitoring and Oversight Division (PFCMOD) for private facilities and treatment staff, the Office of Professional Standards for medical staff, and the Windham School District General Counsel's Office for Windham staff.

9. If an offender alleges that a staff member used slurs or hostile epithets and the offender does not state whether any other staff members were present; the grievance investigator is to interview the offender as to the location of where the alleged incident occurred and whether there was anyone else in the area. If there were only offenders in the area, then acquire a written statement from the staff member who the allegations are against. If the staff member states the incident did not occur, then the grievance is not referred. If the staff member states the incident occurred, the grievance is referred.
10. If an offender alleges that a staff member used slurs or hostile epithets and the offender states another staff member was present, this staff member is a witness. The witness is to be interviewed first and a written statement acquired. If the witness states the incident did not occur, then acquire a statement from the staff member who the allegations are against. If the staff member also states the incident did not occur, the grievance is not referred.
If a witness states the incident occurred, the UGI investigation stops. Do not interview the staff member the allegations are against and refer the grievance and witness statement.
11. Issue Code 811 is documented on grievances that involve staff use of slurs or hostile epithets.
12. The Staff Use of Slurs or Epithets Referral form (Appendix R) is to be completed and taken to the warden who refers to the appropriate department. A completed and signed referral form will be attached to all offender grievances that are referred.
13. Employee information is confidential. Therefore, employee related information regarding a referral such as an intake number, or any related documents are not to be attached to an offender grievance in order to maintain confidentiality.
14. The following response will be provided on grievances that are referred to the appropriate department:

"The issue regarding staff use of slurs or hostile epithets was referred to the appropriate Agency Official for investigation."

15. Outcome Code "O", Referred to Employee Relations for Investigation, was created to apply when:
 - * The only issue listed in the grievance is staff use of slurs or hostile epithets.
 - * The only issue code applied to the grievance is 811.
 - * The grievance was referred to the appropriate department.

Captain Sullivan:

June 28, 2016

I come to you today with a most urgent matter that will require much caution if no one is to be harmed, especially myself. I fear for my safety and the safety of another girl in C wing by the name of Veronica Muniz.

Today, Inmate Muniz let me know that Inmate Lizette Vasquez had threatened to cut me in the face. I did not hear this threat myself so told Inmate Muniz that she should write you with this information. She did so immediately and mailed it out to you. YOU SHOULD RECEIVE THAT I-60 at the same time as this letter. Hours later, Inmate Muniz came to me wondering what she should do because Inmate Vasquez assaulted her by throwing hot water on her. She said that many in the dorm witnessed it. I instructed Inmate Muniz on what she would need to do to report this and warned her that she would likely get sent to segregation pending an investigation. That isn't appealing to any inmate so she seemed reluctant.

Later that evening, I came out to the dayroom and sat at the back table with Snow Jimenez. Inmate Vasquez came to the table and boasted about how she spit on inmate Muniz and threw hot water on her. Jimenez informed her that this wasn't cool and that she was only going to end up back in cellblock. She also informed Vasquez that her threats to cut my face had reached her ears and said, "I'm telling you right now that you aren't going to touch Diane!" Vasquez said, "I was mad. Besides, it isn't worth it." Jimenez said, "I don't care if it is worth it, you aren't laying a hand on her." I said nothing but only listened.

I attended evening Ramadan and Vasquez was standing in line behind me. I tried to make sure my back was never to her and silently got my chow tray as I listened to her say that she almost used Inmate Muniz as her ticket to get back to her wife who is housed on Mountain View in Ad. Seg. She continued to speak about wanting to get back to this "wife" of hers and that made me very nervous. I sat at the chow hall table with her and listened but didn't hold conversation. I did my best to appear as if I had no problem with her and that none of this bothered me, including her previous threat towards me.

I know what getting housed in Ad. Seg. entails. It would mean that someone will likely get hurt badly. When I got back to the dorm, I warned Muniz to watch her back carefully. She is new to the system and didn't understand what I meant by getting housed. I had to explain that the only thing that will likely get a person housed other than an escape charge would be an assault with a weapon. I really don't know what to do besides write you about this but I fear that anything you might do would end badly for me. No one yet knows I've written this to you. ~~The only reason I'm even safe from harm~~ right now is because Vasquez fears Jimenez. Please, understand that I don't have much faith in investigations on this unit thus far. I'm terrified that this letter will only brand me as a snitch and then I'll have zero protection.

Respectfully,

Diane Michelle Zamora #814993

DECLARATION OF VERONICA MUNIZ, TDCJ-ID #2031708

I am over 21 years of age, of sound mind, capable of making this declaration, and personally acquainted with the facts herein stated.

On June 19, 2016, Offender ~~Lizette Vasquez~~ swore to me ~~that she intended to cut Diane Zamora in the face~~. I sent word of this threat to Captain Sullivan by truck mail and have not been questioned about this incident at all to this date.

I have lived in G dorm with Diane Zamora since she first arrived on Hobby Unit on February 18, 2016 and have witnessed the hostility of other inmates towards her and how the stress of living under these conditions has caused her to rapidly lose weight. I have also witnessed that there is a book on her case being passed around the dorm from the library.

I happened to be the person who also ate breakfast with Diane Zamora on May 16, 2016 and am witness that there wasn't an officer present on the street the majority of breakfast. The streets are very dark because the only lights face the recreation yards and not the walkways. I left Diane Zamora at the table at breakfast and met her back at the dorm after she was attacked. She told me she was afraid to report it and get sent to segregation all over again but felt she had no choice. I am witness that her distress was very genuine and she told me about the hispanic girl who attacked her. I was never interviewed about this and didn't even know others had been questioned about the incident.

I have heard lots of rumors but I have never witnessed Diane Zamora solicit anyone to harm her. These rumors were started by Tandra Legar (G102T) who I lived with for a time. She believed that Diane Zamora was trying to harm her lover, Gwendolyn Greene and convinced many in the dorm who did not know Diane that Diane had caused this harm to herself in order to use Greene as a scapegoat.

My name is Veronica Muniz, TDCJ-ID #2031708, and I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the foregoing is true and correct. Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1748. Signed this 29th day of June, 2016.

DECLARATION OF SNOW JIMENEZ, TDCJ-ID #1717230

I am over 21 years of age, of sound mind, capable of making this declaration and personally acquainted with the facts herein stated.

On June 20, 2016, I was made aware of a threat from Irmate Lizette Vasquez, TDCJ-ID #1741221, that she intended to cut Diane Zamora in the face. I assured Zamora that I would allow no such thing to happen to her after Irmate Vasquez admitted to this threat in front of me. I know that this incident was reported to Captain Sullivan of the Hobby Unit but he has not questioned me to this date nor has any investigation ever taken place. The incident has been completely ignored.

I am also witness that there is a library book about Zamora that is making its rounds on Hobby Unit and in the very dorm we live in. This book is marked so that everyone will know where Zamora lives and has been causing problems in the dorm for Zamora. She is the only one I know of on this unit that has a book in the library.

Though Zamora has been the subject of lots of gossip and rumors, she has never solicited anyone in the dorm to harm her and has never attempted to harm herself. I've lived with Diane Zamora since she first arrived on the Hobby Unit and know these things to be true to the best of my knowledge.

My name is Snow Jimenez, TDCJ-ID #1717230, and I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the foregoing is true and correct. Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1748. Signed this 1st day of July, 2016.

You must try to resolve your problem with a staff member before you submit a formal complaint. The only exception is when appealing the results of a disciplinary hearing.

Who did you talk to (name, title)? I sent an I-60 to Warden Markum When? 6-16-16

What was their response? none

What action was taken? none

State your grievance in the space provided. Please state who, what, when, where and the disciplinary case number if appropriate.

On 6-15-16, I went to the library to check the True Crime Section. After multiple inmates informed me that a book on my case was being passed around the unit, 2 books have been published on my case, Blind Love by Peter Meyer and The Cadet Murder Case by A.W. Gray. Additionally, my case has been covered in other compiles by author Ann Rule and People Magazine. While I do not know who books on my case may have been in the library but checked out, I did find True Crime Stories From the Files of People (364.1 TRU) (HB-436033-7-13) which covers my case on pages 12-13. I have already been vandalized with graffiti to include my housing location for any inmate who should care to seek me out. This book is copyrighted 2012 but appears much older from frequent checkouts. No other inmate on this unit has to endure being singled out and having inmates check out books on their criminal case. It places me in a dangerous, vulnerable position that is a threat to my safety. I have no hope of anonymity and put my housing location out like that is painting a huge target on my head.
